

Dyscalculia questionnaire

The following questions are related to dyscalculia, this questionnaire is for both adults and children. This checklist does not give a diagnosis of dyscalculia but gives the assessor a general idea of strengths and weaknesses associated with it.

Did you / do you...	Yes	No
... have poor concept of time and trouble learning to tell the time?
... have a poor memory for basic maths facts?
... have problems with estimating?
... have problems with orientation/direction?
... have difficulty recognising similar looking numbers?

Do you ...	Yes	No
... use your fingers to count?
... have difficulty counting backwards?
... have weak arithmetic skills?
... have difficulty understanding place value?
... experience anxiety when it comes to mathematics?
... struggle to count money/change under pressure?
... avoid situations that require you to use maths, for examples in games?
... struggle to understand information on graphs or charts?
... struggle to measure ingredients in recipes or liquid in a bottle?

Other ...	Yes	No
Are you slow to perform calculations?		